

Adult Education Survey Results

We conducted an Adult Education survey during worship on Sunday March 8. The following summary presents the raw data results from the survey. Over 125 responses were received with very helpful information and valuable insights. We will use this data to structure the Adult Education program.

Thank you very much, Val Pace and Doug Webb

What types of Adult Education offerings are most valuable to you?

Type of class	Number of Responses
Bible study	61
Book study	59
TV/Movie study	36
Theology	27
Personal/Social issues	34
Support	43
Art Classes	29
Other	13

What schedule of Adult Education offerings is most convenient?

Sunday after worship	59
Weekday during the day	29
Weekday evening	41
Sunday evening	26
Other	7	Weekends, Saturday morning, Sunday afternoon, Sunday before worship.

Is child care important for you to attend Adult Education offerings?      Yes 19      No 82

An experienced psychologist has offered to give a workshop addressing how people can better cope with the uncertainty and anxiety regarding financial stress in our society at this time. We would need to have at least 25 people participate. Would you be interested in attending a workshop?

Yes 34      No 54      Maybe 2

Would you be interested in a workshop addressing job loss and career choices? Yes 14 No 74

There are great parent/child (grades K through 5th) classes where the same topic (e.g., The Beatitudes) is offered but with two different specific curriculum. Would you be interested in attending with your child?

Yes 8 No 70

Would you be willing to lead/co-lead an Adult Education class? Yes 16 No 63

If yes, what topic?

Meditation, Book Study, Depression, Mental Health, Islam, Job hunting skills, Theology, Bible Study, Devotional, Artful Prayer, Bible Oriented, Buddhism, Theology, SAM, Career, Art