Our church-wide emphasis "Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity" is half-way through. Over the past weeks we have explored through reading, worship, study groups and conversation, biblical principles about financial management and how we can take practical steps towards a simpler and more expansive generosity.

I hope you have taken the opportunity to read Pastor Adam Hamilton's book "Enough". What I am finding is that many people identify with the challenges of excess materialism and the pressure to acquire more "stuff".

The social and cultural pressures to buy things we don't need and pay for them with money we don't have (creatively termed "Affluenza" and "Credititis") results not just overflowing closets and mounting debt, but depletes our joy for living and cripples our ability to live generously.

Many who have been attending study groups and sharing their responses to this study with me have concerns not so much for themselves but their loved ones. They worry about their children and grandchildren, who are bombarded with advertising to accumulate more "stuff" to make them happy. The rising costs for housing and necessities is a burden, while at the same time, they are unable to prepare for their future because their resources are stretched too thin.

As we conclude our study and reflection on these issues in November, I hope you will continue to read, learn and share your insights with me and others. I hope you will take time to attend a study group. You are welcome to just drop in!

I also hope you will attend the workshop and panel discussion taking place at 10:45 a.m. Sunday, November 3 after coffee fellowship. It is entitled "Finding Joy in Simplifying Your Life: Strategies for Downsizing and Dealing with Clutter". What a wonderful gift of insights and sharing our presenters are offering us. You won't want to miss it!

If you have struggles in areas of budgeting, debt, overflowing closets and storage space, I hope and pray this study and conversation will encourage you and give you strategies for living with less anxiety and greater joy.

If you have successfully avoided some of the pitfalls that plague many of us, I hope you will pray for those struggling, and offer your support, insightful experience and ideas to help others seeking to live more simply and have greater freedom to explore avenues of greater generosity.

May God bless you whether your financial house is in order or disarray. God loves and cares for you, and this journey of studying and learning together is a reminder that we are not alone. There are resources to help us, fellow disciples of Jesus Christ to encourage us, and always God’s grace to sustain us.

May the life Jesus offers us all be truly more "abundant" and full of joy in the days to come.

Grace and peace,
Pastor Chuck

Online Giving on Asbury Website

Asbury has added the ability to donate online through the Asbury website. We had hoped this would be a free (to the church) service but discovered “fine print” that indicated otherwise.

If you feel the need to respond to a special request "right now" and don't have the cash or check, this is a viable option.

The payment page is available under “Contact Us”, then “Pay Online” or www.asburylive.org/online-payments.

After you fill out the form, it will take you to PayPal where you can pay by credit card or link to your personal PayPal account and do a bank to PayPal transfer.

Either way, there is no cost to you (unless you are paying interest on your credit card balance), but will cost Asbury 2.2% + $0.30 per transaction.

If you have questions, contact Dick Crawford.
Our Two Cents

Two quick updates from Finance Committee

Three-quarter year financial update - Thanks to many who have already paid their 2013 pledge in full already, donations for the first nine months of 2013 have exceeded expenses.

January-Sept 2013
Income: $421,866
Expenses: $382,754

We still have some major expenses before the end of the year, so please continue to faithfully contribute toward your yearly pledges.

Also, the Fellowship Hall debt is down to just under $207,000. Thank you for continuing to pay your debt repayment pledges. We could be debt-free in just a couple of more years!

There will be a special offering on Sunday, November 24 for United Methodist Student Day. Your contributions will help fund United Methodist Student scholarships and the U.M. Student Loan Fund. More information can be found here: http://bit.ly/1coDQAk

Jesus as a Small Group Leader

Source: How to Lead Small Groups, by Neal McBride

Jesus' involvement in a small group is the most convincing argument for including such groups in the life of the local church. Jesus Christ is pictured in the New Testament as the greatest small group leader in history. As a group leader or participant you are walking in His footsteps. What can we learn from Jesus about the ministry of small groups?

Jesus began His earthly ministry by establishing His "small group," the apostles. When Jesus began His public ministry, one of His first acts was to form His small group (Mt. 4:18-22 Lk. 6:13). The Son of God certainly didn't need the companionship or assistance of the apostles. Yet from the very beginning He elected to establish and minister within a framework of interpersonal relationships.

Jesus ministered in both large and small group contexts. Jesus proclaimed the kingdom to large crowds. Likewise, He met with small groups in homes (Mt. 26:6) and spent considerable time with His special group, the apostles. Both forms of ministry were important.

Jesus' ministry to large groups was preceded by and proceeded out of His small group context. Which came first, the chicken (large group) or the egg (small group)? In Jesus' case, small group emphasis preceded His large group involvement. Furthermore, it was the small group that provided the platform for Jesus' ministry to large groups of people. The apostles accompanied Jesus as He proclaimed the Good News to the multitudes. Yet He always withdrew to the familiarity and support of His select small group (Mk. 3:7).

Jesus spent the majority of His time with His small group. If we could add up the amount of time Jesus spent with the apostles, we would likely find that this group consumed the majority of His time. They were together constantly: They traveled together, shared meals, experienced mutual hardship, and literally lived together. As Jesus' crucifixion drew closer, He spent more and more time with His small group and less time with the multitudes that sought Him out.

Butterfly Gardens Update

A New Face for Butterfly Gardens

Good news! Dawn Sanchez loves books and is stepping forward to help out with Butterfly Gardens! Watch for some bulletin inserts on books available to read and come on it to explore the shelves!
Celebrate Community

The Best Christmas Gift
We have an early Christmas Gift with your name on it: our Asbury Advent Devotional. Each day, you’ll find an inspiring story, Scripture, and prayer to help you and your family celebrate the Presence of the Divine, Jesus. However, we still need your story, in order to have a complete Advent Devotional.

Please, send your favorite Christmas memory to Pastor Kim or to the church office. You could write about a favorite Christmas memory. You could write about the time you dreaded the holidays, and yet found hope and joy. It could be about a moment when you saw, really saw, the true meaning of Christmas.

Meet the Pastors
Sunday, December 1, 2013, 10:30 a.m.
If you are new to Asbury, Pastors Chuck and Kim would like to meet you. Join us on Sunday, December 1, in the Fireside Room, right after worship, 10:30-11:30 a.m.
We’ll have the chance to get to know each other better, and we will share some information about Asbury’s past, present, and future. All are welcome to attend these sessions, and those who wish to join Asbury will take membership vows on December 15.
Please note these are new dates for meeting the Pastors, and joining Asbury.

Ladies’ Night Out
Monday, November 18, 2013, 6:30 p.m.
Women of Asbury get together once each month for a time of fellowship and conversation at a local restaurant. All women are welcome. This month, they’ll be going to The Carvery at 2491 1st Street in downtown Livermore. RSVP to Nancy Grover or Joanne Petty so they have an idea of how many people are coming and can let the restaurant know ahead of time.

John McCutcheon Concert
January 12, 2014, 4:00 p.m.
Asbury is proud to have one of America’s premier folk singers, song writers and story tellers, John McCutcheon. If it has strings, John can play it. With a fantastic repertoire of music written over three decades of performing and recording, John’s performances are known for their passion, honesty, humor and humanity.
Join us for a Sunday afternoon: January 12 at 4:00 p.m.
Tickets are $15 for students, seniors and in advance. They will be $20 at the door. Ticket sales start November 17 after worship.

Relationships, not organizations, were central in Jesus’ method. The Kingdom Jesus sought to proclaim was not an earthly organization, but a heavenly realm (Lk. 17:20-21). Christ could easily have remained aloof from any relationships that entangled Him in human needs and suffering. Yet, as a practical demonstration of the gospel, He chose to spend His time with people—caring, healing, listening, forgiving, encouraging, teaching, and preaching. Because of His emphasis on people, not programs, the only "organization" that merited Jesus’ continuing time and attention was His small group.

Jesus used the small group context to teach and model spiritual knowledge, attitudes, and behavior. Having formed His group, Jesus taught and modeled spiritual truth by drawing them close to Himself. It was not a formal or academic experience; the small group members simply participated with Christ in whatever He did. They saw and experienced the attitudes and actions He was admonishing others to adopt. It was through this intimate association that the apostles were granted "the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of God" (Lk. 8:10). The apostles' small group was their living-learning laboratory.

The small group was Jesus’ method for leadership training. Jesus devoted Himself primarily to the task of developing a select group of people, the apostles. His goal was to equip this small group of disciples to carry on the work of the gospel after He returned to the Father. Jesus selected common men, "unschooled, ordinary men" by worldly standards (Acts 4:13), who were ready to follow Him and were teachable. In turn, Jesus poured His life into these followers and thrust the future of His whole ministry upon them. It would be "through their message" (Jn. 17:20) that the world would come to believe.
Stewardship Focus Concludes in Nov.

Our church-wide study of "Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity" concludes in November with a focus on the themes of "Contentment" and "Defined by Generosity" on Sunday November 3 and 10. Please continue reading this great resource and join us for worship on those Sundays as Pastor Kim brings a relevant message utilizing those themes.

On Sunday, November 10, every household will be able to pick up an envelope containing information about supporting Asbury in 2014. A cover letter with information about our shared ministries and our financial needs for the coming year will be accompanied by a Giving Guide brochure to offer insights into how to thoughtfully and prayerfully consider your financial support for Asbury. A commitment card along with a return envelope will also be included.

On a practical level, we ask our members and friends to turn in an estimate of giving card each year so that our Finance Committee is able to set an accurate budget for the new year, and avoid miscalculating the balance between resources and financial commitments.

On a personal level, the commitment card is an opportunity for you to spend time in prayer and reflection, considering what offering you would make to God through our church in the coming year.

Please take time during Coffee Fellowship on November 10 to pick up your envelope. Those not picked up that Sunday will be mailed out. Help us save a bit of postage by stopping by the "Enough" table to pick up your envelope.

You may fill out a commitment card and return it by mail, drop it off at the church office, or bring it to worship. You may also do your giving estimate online this year. In each case your commitments are confidential and go to Gail Bryan, Asbury’s chief Financial Secretary. Gail graciously provides quarterly and year-of-end statements for all who give by check or assigned giving number.

If you currently give to Asbury in cash, consider using an envelope with your name applied in order to get tax credit. If you give regularly but haven’t used a commitment card this year - consider making that shift to filling out a card. It helps our church leadership enormously to plan ahead.

In addition to our general budget, we continue to pay off the remaining debt on our Fellowship Hall. Just over $200,000 remains to be paid on our $2.7 million expression of our faith in God’s future. If you wish to renew a commitment for the next year, or are new to Asbury and want to be part of celebrating this great blessing, please examine both sides of the giving card.

Plan to join us on Sunday, November 24 for Celebration Sunday as we consecrate our commitments, offer God thanks and celebrate our blessings together. Then enjoy a congregational brunch organized by our wonderful Fellowship Team. You will be fed spiritually and physically that day and reminded that joy and thanksgiving are at the center of our lives which rest in God’s love for us in Jesus Christ.

Serve Others with Love

Local Mission/Service Project

November 3, 2013

Asbury is going to be cleaning up and painting a portion of May Nissen Park here in Livermore on Sunday, November 3, from noon to 5:00 p.m. A picnic area in need of tables and benches to be painted, a horseshoe pit with fencing needing paint, and a play structure needing paint will be our main tasks. Along with this, some leaf raking and policing the area for trash will also be done.

We start with a little bite to eat at noon and get to work on various projects. This is an intergenerational service project, and we welcome kids from kindergarten to 99 to join us. You can come for the whole time or drop in to help when your schedule permits.

May Nissen Park is located at 685 Rincon Avenue, just east of Murrieta and off Olivina. Sign up at church or let Pastor Chuck or Tina Morris know if you are interested. This is a great and easy way to get your elementary age children involved in service - together with you and people their own age and some of our “ageless” volunteers.

Livermore Homeless Refuge

Kindness Matters!

As November arrives, so does another six month period of compassion and caring exhibited by Asbury and other local churches (Vineyard Community, Holy Cross Lutheran and First Presbyterian) to keep the homeless population of Livermore safe and warm.

Asbury has the first three-week shift (Monday through Friday nights) starting November 4. Rotating between churches (with First Presbyterian the constant weekend location).

LHR offers just the basics: a warm, dry safe place to sleep. Whenever there is a 20% chance of rain and/or temperatures anticipated 40 degrees or below, the Refuge opens. It is staffed entirely by volunteers who take one of the four three-hour shifts during the night. The midnight through early morning hours are the hardest to staff - and are the quietest period. Two people are on each shift, so volunteers are always partnered with someone else.

Last year over 150 of the 180+ nights between October and May the Refuge was open. Can you help once a week to take a shift, perhaps once a month? Do it here to support your church’s ministry. A short training and information time is all that’s required.

Contact Bill Groth or Pastor Chuck for more information and/or to volunteer.

Volunteer at Thanksgiving and Holiday Gift Events

It is wonderful that Asbury UMC will again be hosting the annual Thanksgiving and Holiday Programs sponsored by Tri-Valley Haven. Each year, TVH provides food at Thanksgiving and a Holiday Gift Event for homeless and low-income families in the area. It is a wonderful way to help those families that might be challenged to have a Thanksgiving Dinner or have gifts for their families at the holidays.

Our immediate opportunity is to help register families for the events. We need two volunteers for each of the following dates:

- Thursday, November 7, 3:30-6:00 p.m.
- Wednesday, November 13, 1:00-4:30 p.m.
- Thursday, November 14, 3:30-6:00 p.m.

This first task is to staff a registration table at the Tri-Valley Haven Food Pantry, 418 Junction Avenue, Livermore.

The second thing we have is the actual distribution of the food bags for Thanksgiving. This involves handing out bags of food to families who have pre-registered to receive one. This will be done at Asbury on Monday, November 25. Slots available for signup:

- 8:30-11:30 a.m.
- 11:30-1:00 p.m.
- 4:30-6:00 p.m.

We are to provide two volunteers for each of these slots. You will be working with other volunteers and TVH staff.

Contact Steve Elliott at home or contact the church office to sign up.

Habitat for Humanity Project in Livermore

A few months ago, Asbury UMC lead the initial clean up and exterior painting of a Habitat for Humanity-owned house in Livermore. It was enjoyable work and a big success.

Now we are ready to start the rehab of the interior. No technical skills required, just a loving heart willing to serve on behalf of a deserving cause.

We will begin work on November 9. More information will be provided for those who sign up. Additional workdays will be November 16 and 23 and December 7, 14 and 21.

For more information or to register, contact Steve Elliott, Bob Hoffman or the Church office.

Blood Drive Volunteer

The Livermore Community Blood Drive has been going strong for over 10 years now with 70 drives and nearly 3500 units of blood collected in that time. This has helped approximately 10,000 people in the Bay Area, and is needed to help patients with cancer, victims of trauma, and surgery patients.

Because of the strong donor base and continued success of the drive, the American Red Cross asked us to change to a monthly drive, instead of every other month.

We’re looking for a couple volunteers to help close up the Fellowship Hall after one of the drives. This involves sweeping, taking out the trash, putting the furniture back and locking up. It takes about one hour on one Friday evening per month at 8:00 p.m., after the Red Cross is finished.

If you’d be available to rotate a month or two, please contact Tom Petty at home.

The Red Cross is always looking for volunteers to help at the different drives around the Bay Area to help in the canteen (free cookies!) or as a greeter. Contact Tom to find out more information.

Dear Asbury Friends,

I’d like to suggest to the congregation that the power of prayer will give you the confidence to move forward knowing that the outcome is in the hands of our God, the Creator.

I did appreciate the visits, telephone calls and many cards during my brief hospital “ordeal”. Thanks to all.

Regards, Hal Miller
