Join Us for Worship in September!

September 6: Communion Sunday
Sermon Series: Journey with the Stars: Hagar's Story
Scripture: Genesis 21: 14-20a—Hagar was mistreated, yet God did not abandon her. God hears our cries, and the cries of our children, providing sustenance for our journey. The Sacrament of Holy Communion, open to all, reminds us that God sustains us as well.

We will also introduce our new hymn books, Worship and Song.

September 13: Kick Off Sunday
- Sunday School Program Begins
- Third Grade Bibles Presented
- Blessing of the Sunday School Teachers

Sermon Series: Journey with the Stars: Sarah's Transformation
Scripture: Genesis 17: 15-20—Sarah lived with a promise from God for 13 years: the promise that she would be a mother. How to remain hopeful when the answer to our deepest desires, our prayers, are not immediately experienced? What prayer for yourself, and for the world around us, have you been cherishing? We will explore how Sarah’s story relates to our days, here and now.

September 20
Sermon Series: Journey with the Stars: The Wickedness of Sodom
Scripture: Genesis 19:1-11—we conclude our journey with Abraham and his family with the infamous story of Sodom. It is a story that has permitted our culture, but what really was the sin of Sodom? How does how we welcome strangers shape who we are?

September 27: A Celebration!
Today we celebrate that thanks to your faithful giving, our new Fellowship Hall is debt free. Hallelujah!

Guest Preacher, District Superintendent Staci Current is preaching. After worship, we will have a special brunch in our Fellowship Hall.
As we welcome visitors (there are some just about every week!), I invite you to be challenged by these observations by Scott Dannemiller who posted these thoughts in Huffington Post, May 6, 2015 (www.huffingtonpost.com/scott-dannemiller/the-church-is-not-your-home_b_7217926.html)

“When I work with congregations, I often ask the members what they love most about their church. And 9 times out of 10, the response is, ‘It’s like a big family.’

“And every time I hear this, I cringe a little.

“Please don’t misunderstand me. Families are beautiful. My own family is incredibly welcoming. At the same time, we’re also loud and boisterous and overwhelming. We have inside jokes and tired old stories. If you’re spending Thanksgiving with us for the first time it can be downright exhausting. And exclusive. As an outsider, you are left to try and quickly understand decades of history and assimilate quickly.

“And we ask our church guests to do the exact same thing. We treat them like guests.

“Like guests in our home.

“It’s a wonderful analogy, isn’t it? We roll out the red carpet for houseguests. We offer them our best food and drink. We break out the fine china. Heck, we even let them use the special towels that normally stay locked behind some sort of invisible force field in our bathrooms, never to be touched by an actual family member.

“If welcoming were an Olympic sport, churches would be Michael Phelps, only with coffee stations and tuna hot dish. But here’s the problem:

“I’m afraid the mindset behind our welcoming spirit might slowly, subtly be killing our church.

“Don’t get me wrong. I am not saying our churches should stop welcoming visitors. And I’m not saying church shouldn’t feel like a place where you belong. What I am saying is that we need to stop viewing our churches as our homes. And here’s the reason.

“While I am very welcoming to my guests, I also see my home as mine. A possession.

“But the church is not our home. We do not possess it. We are caretakers of our church, not owners. So today I pray that this will be our call. That we may tirelessly look for ways to be caretakers of the church. To look for ways to use our buildings and our gifts not for ourselves, but for others. And in so doing, may the light of Christ show through our generosity. Our openness. And our selflessness. Reaching out to the family of God.”

I’d value hearing your responses to this article. I hope it challenged you, as it did me. You can comment on the Asbury website here: www.asburylive.org/news/pastors-ponderings-5/

Pastor Kim

On Saturday, September 19, Asbury will join other faith communities at the new Habitat construction in Martinez. Everyone is welcome, regardless of skills or experience. It is a wonderful way to make a difference. We often work with the families who will own the new homes.

Circles for Change: Update

October 15-17, 2015

We are moving forward to begin a poverty alleviation program in our Tri Valley community called Circles for Change. Generous donations have made going forward possible, and support from the broader Tri Valley community will make it happen. Exciting stuff!

Our next task is to hire a part time coordinator, who will go to a training in Carson City, October 15-17. We will also need to have more funds in order to cover the coordinator’s salary. See Pastor Kim for more information, as well as for ways you can be involved.
Sunday School News
We had a Sunday School Teacher celebration August 30 catered by Mexxi’s Mexican restaurant as we prepared for Fall Sunday School.
We are looking for Sunday School Teachers to be a lead teacher, an assistant, or a substitute.
Do you remember a special Sunday School teacher from when you were a child, or someone you looked up to, who spent time with you and helped you connect to who you are? We are looking for people to be a kind supportive presence to our amazing children, while letting God’s light shine through them.
You do not need to be a Bible scholar to teach Sunday School. We have a curriculum this fall where each child will receive a Parable focused storybook each week to keep and take home to read with their family. In class, we will have a time of prayer with joys and concerns, read the storybook together, and do an activity.
We have a Travel Guide for teachers to spend time with before teaching. If there is an activity you connect with within the guide please follow that guidance. If you have a special gift you feel called to share with children and can adapt it to connect with the Parable story, please follow your heart.
We learned so much from our VBS time together this year, where we did not make a box curriculum work, but looked within ourselves and brought forth our gifts to create an original curriculum from our hearts. This approach radiated an excitement throughout the entire week and built beautiful lifetime memories.

So if you have games, a way to express yourself through arts and crafts, science experiments, skits, songs—within you to share with our amazing children, contact Jackie Bennett or see her in the Fellowship Hall to sign up at the “Asbury Kids” table.
Teachers for the fall session will teach October 4 through November 22. Come explore the blessed possibilities. If you are still curious about the program, come and observe as some teachers teach the beginning of our fall curriculum on September 13, 20, and 27.
On Saturday, September 12, we hope you will join Asbury for the special Habitat for Humanity Project for families to participate in from 9:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m. with lunch provided.
Come by for the whole day, or an hour or two. We will build and decorate two playhouses for Tri-Valley Haven’s domestic violence and homeless shelters. For more information or to sign up, stop by the Serve Others with Love Table after worship or contact Bob Hoffman or Steve Elliott.

Sunday, September 13 is our Annual Sundae Sunday kick off for Sunday School and Choirs beginning a new season. Third graders will be presented with a bible during our church service. Please email Jackie if you have a child going into third grade.
Blessing and love,
Jackie Bennett

Youth Kick-Off Retreat
Save the date September 11-13 for a fall youth retreat! We will go up to Monte Toyon for a chance to re-connect with friends and with God amidst the beautiful redwoods and ocean. We will spend Saturday afternoon at the Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk enjoying the rides and the beach! We will meet at Asbury at 5pm on September 11, pick-up will be at noon on September 13. The cost of the retreat is $50. Please reserve your spot by September 4!
It started out modestly on a chilly day – the last day of the year in 2002. Joanne (my wife) and I started a community blood drive at Asbury on December 31 that year, and collected 34 units of blood. It was a successful drive and I remember my mom saying to me later, “Great job, you’re done now, right?” “No Mom, we’re just getting started. The American Red Cross needs blood all year around.”

We sponsored a blood drive every two months until February 2013, when we switched to a monthly drive. We knew that the number of people giving blood at each drive would drop, but we hoped that as they spread out among the extra dates, that the numbers would come back up at each drive. We were right.

We’ve now held 93 blood drives, and collected exactly 4600 units of blood during that time. Nearly 1900 individuals have come through to donate blood in that time. It’s now the largest and most successful community blood drive in the Bay Area. There are larger drives, like at UC Berkeley and corporate drives at LLNL/Sandia, but we are the largest community drive.

Nationally, the average donor only gives blood 1.7 times per year. If we could just get everyone to give two times per year, the blood shortages could be solved. I got to thinking about our Asbury church community and the donors that come to our drive. It’s clear that we have a core set of people who keep coming back over and over to donate blood, and far exceed the 1.7 donations per year.

I asked the Red Cross for a report of everyone who had donated at our drives, and how many units they’ve given (ever). Sorting the list, I came up with 108 current and past Asbury members who have donated blood at our drive. I tallied those numbers up, and we Asburyites are a giving bunch. It came to a whopping 2304 units or approximately 266 gallons of blood! Those 2304 units have directly impacted about 6900 people's lives, because each unit of blood is typically divided into three components (red blood cells, plasma and platelets), which can be distributed to three different people.

The Asbury 5 Gallon Club

I got to digging even further into the numbers, and we have an amazing bunch of blood donors who have a long history of giving blood. Of the 108 people from Asbury, 37 people have donated two or more gallons of blood. Of those, 18 or nearly 50% have donated at least five gallons of blood! Wow. In order to donate five gallons, you have to have successfully donated 40 units of blood, and that takes nearly seven years to accomplish that feat at the maximum donation rate of six times per year.

Of those people, we have six that have actually exceeded ten gallons of blood donations, including me. (I received my ten gallon pin last August.)

I was proud today to present donation pins from the American Red Cross as thanks to those who have been so generous in their time and giving back to society, way exceeding the normal donation rates. These are the folks that are in what I’m now calling the "5 Gallon Club", and by themselves have donated over 150 gallons:

- Tim Ackerman – 17 gallons (wow!)
- Daniel Donovan – 14 gallons
- Coleman Johnson – 13 gallons
- Roger Everett – 12 gallons
- Tony Gnecco – 12 gallons
- Thomas Petty – 10 gallons
- Bob Cowgill – 8 gallons
- Nancy Deis – 8 gallons
- Don Faul – 8 gallons
- Joanne Petty – 7 gallons
- Dave Braun – 6 gallons
- Karen Faraldo – 6 gallons
- Art Molvik – 6 gallons
- Jean Braun – 5 gallons
- Evelyne Schwartz – 5 gallons
- Abdul Sughayar – 5 gallons
- Joyce Suter – 5 gallons
- John Van Scyoc – 5 gallons

Growing In Faith

Small Group Leader Training
Do you feel called to go deeper in faith? One way to do that is to lead a small group, there is no experience necessary, you don't have to be a biblical scholar or a methodist history buff. All you need is an openness to explore conversations with a group and a willingness to try something new. Most small groups use curriculum from books to DVDs, many of which come with questions to guide discussion. Small groups are truly a transformative way where folks grow closer to God and to one another. There is no set time commitment to being in a small group or a small group leader, some continue on for a few months, others for years depending on the wishes of the leader and the group. If you are interested in exploring small group leadership, come to a training Saturday October 10 from 9am-3pm in the Sanctuary, lunch will be provided! The training is not a commitment to lead a small group. Current small group leaders are invited to join us at the training.

Third Annual Interfaith Interconnect Potluck Picnic
Sponsored by Interfaith Interconnect

In recognition of United Nations International Day of Peace, please join us for our Third Annual Interfaith Interconnect Potluck Picnic.

Blood Drive (cont’d)
I’m amazed at what we’ve been able to accomplish, and how giving people at Asbury are.

My wife, Joanne, is no longer able to give blood due to some health issues. She herself was the recipient of nearly four gallons of plasma just last year during an extended hospital stay as well as two units of blood just a week ago. This probably helped save her life when she was so sick.

Bay Area hospitals need about 300 units of blood every day, seven days a week. We do not have enough donors to keep up with the demand, and actually have to import blood from other parts of the country.

If you are 17 or older (16 years old with parental consent), in generally good health, and want to donate blood, please go to www.redcrossblood.org and search for a drive near you. To donate at the next Asbury drive, use ASBURY925 as the sponsor code.

My wife and I thank you, as do the countless others who have survived another day because of generous blood donors like our Asbury family.

2015 Asbury Follies
Saturday, October 17, 7:00 p.m.
It’s that time again! Time for an evening of music, laughter and fellowship, and you can be a part of it. If you sing, play an instrument, or are just naturally foolish, please join us for the Follies. As in the past, you are encouraged to:

1. Choose any piece of music you want to perform, alone or with any number of partners
2. Send the lyrics or sheet music to Barbara David by September 26
3. Rehearse on your own with your accompanist (live music only, unless you bring a sound engineer with you!)
4. Rehearse with the entire group on Friday, October 16, 7:00 p.m.
5. Perform for your adoring fans on Saturday, October 17, 7:00 p.m.

If you have other mad performance skills that you want to share (dancing, story-telling, juggling or anything else) please contact Barbara David and we’ll include you in the fun, too.

Your song will magically become part of a story that the Asbury Players Readers Theater will tell as the evening unfolds.

If you don’t want to perform solo, you can still be a part of the Follies by joining in a group number or the big finale. And if you don’t want to perform at all, please join us in the audience. Admission is free to all, but donations to APPLAUSE will be dramatically accepted.

For more information, contact Barbara David at home.
Asbury adult, youth, children’s choirs, band, and bells are all rehearsing in the month of September.

Asbury Ringers (handbell choir) will begin their weekly rehearsal schedule on Sunday, September 6 from 7-9:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary.

Asbury Band will resume weekly rehearsals on Tuesday, September 8, at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary.

Faith Choir (adult choir) begins at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, September 9 in the Sanctuary.

All Youth (grades 6-12) and Children’s Choirs (grades K-5) will begin on Sunday, September 13 at 10:30 a.m. in the Chapel. We would like to have parents come to the first 15 minutes of that gathering to fill out contact information and sign permission slips for their singers.

As a thank you, choir directors will have a sweet chocolate reward to give to parents for each singer they sign up!

We will be introducing Lauren Cano as our new Cherub Choir Director. She will be competently assisted by veteran Cherub Leadership: Makayla Gully and Evelynne Schwartz.

This year, we will be merging Middle School Choir and High School Choir into one group. Until this awesome group has a chance to name themselves, they will be known as “Youth Choir”. They will be under the direction of Jessica Warren.

1st Watch, another adult group, will begin its season with rehearsal on Wednesday, September 16 at 6:30-7:30 p.m. They rehearse for once hour per month, then sing in service, usually on the fourth Sunday of the month.

ALL musical groups at Asbury would LOVE to have additional singers and players. If you would like to join, or just check them out, come to a rehearsal. You’ll be glad you did – and so will we!
Dear Asbury Family,

Last September my sister, Linda Fox, underwent emergency brain surgery for an abscess. She was gravely ill for many weeks, but gradually began to recover. She spent several months in a rehab facility, and was able to return to her home in Durango, CO, in December. This past week she flew here to visit her family, including two little grand nephews whom she had never met. We all had a wonderful time together.

Many of you prayed for Linda, and inquired about her often. Linda asked me to thank all of you for your prayers and for your concern and caring. She told me that she was aware of the voices that were raised in her behalf, and was comforted and supported by them.

Many, many thanks to you all,
Anne Coll

Dear Asbury Community,

Thank you all for the love, acceptance, support and prayers over the last eight months. You will never know how your kindness got me out of bed every morning and gave me strength to carry on.

Thank you for the lovely send-off, the scrapbook, notes and generous gifts. I am blessed to be part of a congregation that cares and acts.

Best wishes as you all continue your faith journey and your work for God. You will always be near and dear to my heart!

Love,
Tina Morris
P.S. Join a small group!!

Edna Chance celebrated her 98th birthday at the Zephyr Restaurant in Livermore. Her birthday week was started with a dinner with her children, Tom Chance and Janet Buckley, their spouses and the Livermore children of her siblings.

Edna is now the survivor of a family of 5 that came to Livermore in 1928. Edna, mother and siblings followed their father to California from Colorado. Their father was on a crew on the Hetch Hetchy Dam construction. All of her sisters and later husbands as well as her brother became intricate persons in the business life of a growing community. She is the matriarch of a family of six grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.
