Sometimes I am asked what is my favorite piece of scripture. I find that very hard to answer because I have so many depending on the situation and what is going on around me and in me.

This morning I find myself focused on the passage from the Book of Deuteronomy 10:18-19. "God enacts justice for orphans and widows, and God loves immigrants, giving them food and clothing. That means you must also love immigrants because you were immigrants in Egypt." (Common English Bible Translation).

Last Saturday, twenty of us gathered in the Chapel for Part 1 of a workshop "Embracing the New Multicultural Reality". We focused on how we sift through the tangled web of cultural and racial difference, difference in life-experience and personal story, and systemic racism to figure out how we can love one another well across cultures and races.

We were reminded that racial and cultural difference and experiences are sometimes an uncomfortable topic for us to talk about. We worry that we will feel guilty, that we will say something wrong, that we may be judged.

Nevertheless, it is an important topic to dive into without shame or guilt but with curiosity, because we all have room to grow and learn and doing so is a gift to our neighbors who may be different from us.

Part 2 of the workshop which will be held later this year will give us skills to become more multi-culturally competent.

It was a very rich morning. One of the things we were asked to do was to consider forming teams that would... regularly walk eight blocks in all directions from our church and take time to converse with those that we met, learn about their experience in our community, ask them how they have seen change in the community and if/when appropriate invite them to consider checking out the Asbury community. So watch for more news on that.

On the next day, Sunday, I was reminded once again of how God moves in our lives in interesting and interrelated ways.

A young man, Alex, has arrived in our community and in our congregation. Alex comes to us from Guatemala via First United Methodist Church in Ypsilanti, Michigan. Alex is seeking Asylum in the USA. He had been living in Ypsilanti Michigan and was active in the First UMC in Ypsilanti.

They had been assisting him and he had been active in their church. First UMC Ypsilanti contacted me before Alex arrived to ask if we would welcome him and I said, “Of course!”

I am seeking to put together a group of people who will walk with Alex during the next several months.

Alex understands English, speaks some, and is becoming more fluent daily. His primary language is Spanish. Alex is living with a good friend and his Aunt a couple of miles from the church. Alex is 18 so I can only imagine how worried his family back in Guatemala must be. And I think if this was my son, I would want a church like Asbury to welcome him into the community.

I am seeking to put together a group of people who will intentionally walk with Alex on his journey. There will be many different ways we can accomplish this including:

- Helping him learn the Livermore area
- Doing research with Alex on groups that help with asylum cases (there are several)
- Befriending Alex and welcoming him in our church, community and homes
- Driving Alex and accompanying him to asylum interviews
- Helping Alex with the paperwork for asylum
- Help him figure out transportation options (I am wondering if a bike might be an option for getting around Livermore)
- Eventually when it’s appropriate, helping him find a way to continue his education or training and to find work
- Most likely fund raising to help with some of the asylum expenses

As you can see, there are a variety of ways that folks can help walk with Alex through this time. There is also training for local church support groups for this work and we will seek out that training.

If you might be interested in intentionally walking with Alex for the next several months, please let me know!!

On another front, I ask for your prayers as we approach the special General Conference that meets February 23-26 in St. Louis, MO. I especially ask that we pray for the delegates to approach this conference with love in their heart, with the intent to act ethically and with an openness to the leading of God’s spirit.

On the Sunday that I am at General Conference, February 24, Don Fado will be our guest preacher. Chelsea will lead worship but she is just getting back from her vacation to Nepal and will probably have major jet lag!

Don is a retired United Methodist Pastor who is an excellent preacher. He is the father of one of Asbury’s former Associate Pastors, Donna Fado Ivery. Please give Don a warm welcome.

As always, I am glad to talk with you about what I have written above or any other matter.

Blessings,
Pastor Kathy

Feeding the Hungry
For the next three months the Serving Others team will emphasize how Asbury helps those in our community and around the country and the world that don't always have enough to eat. Sometimes people simply don't make enough money to provide all the basic necessities such as a place to live, health care and food. Other times disaster may destroy the infrastructure that allows food to get to people.

Open Heart Kitchen is the Focus
Every week our church hosts Open Heart Kitchen. Volunteers prep and serve several hundred meals each day, and greeters make those hungry guests feel welcome. Our guests come from all walks of life: the homeless, seniors on a limited income, those unemployed, those underemployed and low income families struggling to make ends meet. No questions are asked—there is simply an invitation to share a meal.

Volunteering with Open Heart Kitchen
If you would like to help at Open Heart Kitchen, there is a need for kitchen crew volunteers to prepare and serve food. This may involve chopping fruits and vegetables (often from our very own Garden of Grace), cooking from recipes provided, making coffee and tea, serving buffet style, maybe wiping up the occasional spill, and washing up some pots and pans. For more information or to volunteer, contact Carol Perry or stop by the Serve Others with Love table after worship.

Habitat for Humanity Workday
Saturday, February 9, 2019
The first 11 homes at Central Commons in Fremont are almost ready for families to move in, but there is still work to do for some homes—mostly finish carpentry, painting and landscaping. To finish up those final tasks, we have a workday February 9. If you want to volunteer or want more information, contact Bob Hoffman or sign up after worship. Phase 2 of the remaining 19 homes will hopefully begin later in February.

Would You Like to Be a Better Listener?

Think of a time when you really felt cared for. Chances are someone focused on what you had to say, was attentive to your needs, and listened to how you felt instead of telling you how you should feel or what you should do.

Listening is one of the most powerful tools at your disposal. It demonstrates that you care about the other person. In Stephen Ministry, a great deal of time is spent in teaching and practicing listening skills because of its importance as a caregiving tool. You too can become a more caring listener by understanding and applying these six listening concepts from Stephen Ministry training:

1. Listening is active. It takes energy and commitment to listen really well. Focus your attention on what the other person has to say instead of thinking of what you’ll say next. Look at him or her while you listen, and nod along from time to time so the person knows you’re tuned in.

2. Listening takes patience. Often you need to build trust before someone will open up to you. Constant, patient listening is a key.

3. Listening involves more than just words. Pay attention not only to what is said, but to what is not said—or to what is said with a smile or a sigh. Pay attention to body language, too. Does it agree with or contradict a person’s spoken words?

4. Good listeners aren’t completely silent. They restate key thoughts or ideas to be sure they understood correctly or ask focused questions to encourage the person to reach a little deeper.

5. Listening happens over time. One conversation might build upon an earlier one. As you listen over several conversations, are there any recurring themes or patterns in what the person has said? Are there any contradictions from what was said earlier? These are signs there may be more to explore underneath.

6. Listening is confidential. A great way to build trust and to show the person you really care for him or her is to maintain confidentiality and not to share with others what was told to you in private conversation.

Jesus was the model of a good listener. Much of his ministry was listening to people. By listening to what people had to say he demonstrated how much he really cared about them. Remember the stories of the woman at the well, Nicodemus, or the disciples on the road to Emmaus. All were times when Jesus showed his care and concern by first listening to people and then giving them what they needed.

We all want Asbury to be a caring place where members and guests truly feel people care about who they are and how they feel. Just as our Stephen Ministers use good listening skills to communicate how much they care, so can you. Follow and practice these listening principles and make a concentrated effort toward becoming a better listener. Listening is a great gift we can give to one another, and one we can all use in order to make Asbury a more caring community.

If you’d like to learn more about Stephen Ministry or would like to explore having a Stephen Minister assigned to you, please contact Pastor Kathy La Point-Collup (925-447-1950 ext 102) or Pastor Chelsea Constant (925-447-1950 ext 101), or any of our other Stephen Leaders at Asbury.

2019 Women’s Retreat
March 8-10, 2019
Asbury's Women's Retreat is March 8-10, 2019 at San Damiano Retreat Center. Our theme: Knowing Me, God and You. We will use the Myers Briggs Type Indicator and Jung's Theory of Personality types to learn and practice a variety of spiritual disciplines. We will discover why some spiritual disciplines are meaningful to us; why others are not and why something we just love doesn't work for someone else or why something we don't like is so meaningful to another.

We will also have the opportunity to work on developing our shadow side.

Pastor Kathy will be the Resource Leader. The retreat format is Friday night dinner through 11:00 a.m. on Sunday. There’ll be free time on Saturday for walks/hikes, meditation, making new friends, physical activities, spiritual direction, learning how to play handbells, arts and crafts, and possible massages will be available.

All women are encouraged to attend.

Prayer Chain
Did you know that Asbury has an electronic prayer chain? For prayer requests for the prayer chain, please contact Pastor Chelsea, Pastor Kathy or the Church office or send them in online here.

If you are requesting prayers for someone other than yourself, please ask that person if it is okay to include them on our prayer chain before sending us the information.

If you would like to be a part of this prayer ministry and receive requests for prayer that you can pray for on a regular basis, please notify either pastor or the church office. Prayer is one of the many ways that we share God's love in the world.

Anointing and Healing Prayers in Worship
Beginning Sunday, February 2, we will offer prayers of healing and anointing with oil during Communion. Those who would like to be anointed are invited to come before or after receiving communion to the ramps into the chancel to receive this rite.

As our UMC website states: Scripture strongly affirms ministries of spiritual healing...The root of the word healing in New Testament Greek, sozo, is the same as that of salvation and wholeness. Spiritual healing is God's work of offering persons balance, harmony, and wholeness of body, mind, spirit, and relationships through confession, forgiveness, and reconciliation...All healing is of God. The Church's healing ministry in no way detracts from the gifts God gives through medicine and psychotherapy. It is no substitute for either medicine or the proper care of one's health. Rather, it adds to our total resources for wholeness. Healing is not magic, but underlying it is the great mystery of God's love. Those who minister spiritual healing are channels of God's love...God does not promise that we shall be spared suffering but does promise to be with us in our suffering. Trusting that promise, we are enabled to recognize God's sustaining presence in pain, sickness, injury, and estrangement...A Service of Healing is not necessarily a service of curing, but it provides an atmosphere in which healing can happen...Laying on of hands, anointing with oil, and the less formal gesture of holding someone's hand all show the power of touch, which plays a central role in the healings recorded in the New Testament. Jesus often touched others—blessing children, washing feet, healing injuries or disease, and raising people from death. Biblical precedent combines with our natural desire to reach out to persons in need in prompting us to touch gently and lovingly those who ask for healing prayers. Such an act is a tangible expression of the presence of the healing Christ, working in and through those who minister in his name.

Please feel free to contact Pastor Kathy or Pastor Chelsea if you would like to find out more about anointing in our faith tradition.
Endowment Fund During 2018

Asbury established an Endowment Fund in the fall of 2016 to support Asbury’s missions and ministries in future years.

After a diversified investment plan was approved by the Finance Committee, investments in seven mutual funds began in May, 2017. These funds consist of US stock funds (50%), foreign stock funds (20%), and bond funds (30%). Each of these has 50% in a total market index fund and 50% in actively managed funds.

The percentages listed are goals, which we have approached closely by adjusting monthly investments. Now that we are totally invested, further investments will occur as new donations allow.

We invested a total $137,513 by the end of 2018. Due to the stock market dropping from its peak by almost 15% at the end of 2018, the value on December 31, 2018 was $133,196.33, a loss of $4,316.67 (-3.2%).

We’re investing for the long term. Past experience in the stock market shows gains in most periods longer than five to ten years, even after correcting for inflation. Gains can be withdrawn to be used for purposes determined by the Church Council, or they can be allowed to accumulate to support larger future ministries.

If you would like more details on the Endowment Fund, please talk to Art Molvik or Dave Braun.

Contributions can be made anytime, just by writing Endowment Fund on the check’s memo line, or on an envelope.

Pictorial Directories

Last June, pictures were taken for a pictorial directory at Asbury. Due to a variety of circumstances, there has been a delay in publishing the directory. The directory will be available in the next few weeks. Updated Address, email and phone directories are always available from the church office. As we receive changes every month for addresses, phone numbers, new people, etc., it is always a good idea to ask the church office for an updated directory when one working on a church event. Thank you!

New Asbury Articles Editor

We want to thank Tom Petty who has graciously and faithfully edited our Asbury Articles for over 16 years. Tom will retire from the post of editor and is passing the torch to Michele Rudd who is delighted to put her editorial skills to work.

Michele takes the helm with the March edition. Please join us in expressing our appreciation to Tom for a job well done and for Michele stepping up to this new venture!

New Video Editor for Sunday Services

We want to express our gratitude to Tom Petty who has been editing the video of the Sunday services and posting them on the website and the sermon on YouTube. Tom was ready to relinquish this aspect of his IT Director job with Asbury.

Austin Gnecco has stepped up to fill this important role. And because this job can be done remotely, Austin will be able to continue this as a college job. Tom continues as our IT Director. Please join us in expressing appreciation to both Tom and Austin!
Dear Asbury members,

Happy New Year. It is amazing how fast time has flown. So much changed last year and yet so much has remained the same. The garden continues to grow, providing nourishment to the bodies and souls of so many.

Last year over a thousand volunteers came out to learn and help us grow, harvest and share 19,147 pounds of fresh vegetables with our community. In just this past month we have been able to harvest 775 pounds of winter root crops, greens and vegetables. Some intrepid You pickers have even found they like yummy winter greens like kale and collards.

Last week we started our first pepper and eggplant seeds for the Garden of Grace, school gardens and our upcoming plant sale. They are just starting to sprout in our greenhouse “tunnels of love” now. We continue to start and transplant new beet, radish, turnip lettuce and bok choy seedlings into the garden.

They are doing a great job of filling in the holes left by the plants we have harvested and allowing us to continue to provide healthy food to our neighbors in need. Come warm spring weather we will start transplanting our summer crops of peppers, eggplant, cucumbers and yummy tomatoes.

If you need a break from the news, please do come out and visit the garden, enjoy some broccolini as you wander and see what thrives in the chilly weather of winter.

Until next we meet, please take care of yourselves and may kindnesses fill your days. Sincere wishes for a wonderful 2019 full of love, happiness and dreams come true.

Sincerely,

Brenda Kusler
Executive Director
